About the Festival:

Moab International Film Festival is a non-profit organization dedicated to showcasing independent films of the highest quality from around the world.

The Moab International Film Festival in Moab, Utah is scheduled for November 20th-23rd, 2015. We've been recruiting and have received film submissions from both known and up and coming filmmakers from around the world and we've already received more than our fair share of excellent quality films to show. We've received many award winning films as well as a few world premieres from well-known producers and we assure you that we will be making a mark in the independent film world. Sponsors and donations make the festival possible. We have press covering the event and, like last year, we expect celebrity guests as well.

Mission:

Our mission is to showcase stellar independent films with regard to quality of storytelling and cultural value for film-goers to enjoy. We aim to share uniquely powerful stories, concepts, and ideas from around the world.
